

I do not think that the NJ Do Not Call List should be weakened. I signed up immediately and my phone and home are mine again. I was constantly interrupted from early morning until late evening, seven days a week. Screening calls did not help, the phone still rang over and over again since they would just call back. Please do not take my quiet away.